The fall season is here. This country has arranged to loan $500,000,000 to Great Britain and France. Are you still croaking hard times? Maybe a little judgment and business push would help you.

Returned After Year And Beats His Wife

Mrs. Charley Tote was in police court this morning to be a witness against her husband who was arrested last night on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The parties live on Third street and Tote had not been home for a year until yesterday afternoon and had not contributed one cent toward the support of his wife and three children for almost three years. Yesterday he came home drunk, called his wife bad names, accused her of being intimate with the boarders and raised ned generally. She had him arrested and this morning at the hearing there was almost a scene. The burgess asked the woman if she wanted her husband and she replied "No." "Then I'll send him away" and Tote was ordered to shake the dust from his feet instanter and beat it across the river where he claimed to have a job at the new mill. He left the police station promising never to return and Mrs. Tote seemed happy.

Henry Tonks came over from North Charleroi last night and got an awful jag on. He was in a fighting humor at Fifth and Donner when the police arrested him. He was sentenced to two days on the streets.

A Wise of McKeesport, a junk pedler, was charged with having allowed his horse to run at large through the streets. He was told to take the animal to the livery stable the next time he visits town. He was released without a fine.

George Bobola of Third street, had to pay a fine of $1.00 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and John Mihon had to yield up a five spot for making a bed out of the street.

Died Yesterday

Harry Schwartz, a well known local tailor, died yesterday in a Pittsburgh hospital, following a short illness. The deceased was 54 years of age and has been a resident of this city for a number of years. For some time he conducted a tailor shop in the opera house building on Schoonmaker avenue. The remains were brought to this city this morning. Funeral services were held from his Donner avenue home at one o'clock this afternoon with interment in the Hebrew cemetery.

Hunters Are Ready

Hunters in this section are showing increasing interest in their preparedness for the season during the last few frigid days. Application for license are becoming numerous and there will probably be a particularly large number of nimrods hereabouts.

Friday, October 15 brings in the hunting season and as in other years there will be a rush for the fields and woods. The state law requires those who go in search of game to take out a license and the number must be worn on the sleeve of the person securing the license. A resident license costs $1 and a non-resident license, $10. They may be had from the county treasurer or from a justice of the peace.

Beginning with the 15th, squirrels, English pheasants, quail, ruffed grous, blackbirds and wild turkey may be killed until November 30. The rabbit season is confined to the month of November. Elk are protected until 1921 while the deer season lasts only from December 1 to December 15.

The last session of the legislature authorized the printing of 100,000 copies of a phamphlet containing the game, fish and forestry laws of the state. These may be obtained upon application at the time the license is taken out.

Although the season does not open until Friday, 2,975 hunters in this county have secured a 1915 license to hunt in the state this fall. Among tthese are eight women. During the next few days it is expected several hundred more will be added to the list.

Rabbit and hare cannot be hunted until November 1 but quail, pheasant, woodcock, wild turkey, grouse and blackbirds come in season for hunters on October 15.

To Roam No More

It is understood that Mrs. Von Pelt who traveled with her husband, Hubert Von Pelt, the world's tourist, who was at the Star theatre yesterday, suddenly disappeared Monday evening and her husband of six weeks hunted in vain for her. It is thought she returned to her home in Pittsburgh. She was Miss Lauretta Moldausch, a girl born and raised in Pittsburgh, and a recent High school graduate. Her parents were Austrians. Von Pelt traveling on a wager with a Vienna, Austria newspaper, met her in Pittsburgh while on his travels and they were married. She had traveled with Von Pelt for the past five weeks, but evidently tired of it and returned to her home. Von Pelt was not aware of her absence for some time, but when seen in town yesterday stated that she had become suddenly ill and was in a Pittsburgh hospital.

Begin Bible Studies

The Rev. Dr. Max Wertheimer, the converted Jewish Rabbi began a series of Bible studies yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Baptist church, the subject being "The Feasts of Jehovah." These Bible studies illustrated by a chart will be given every afternoon. We make an appeal to Sunday school teachers especially to be present as these lessons should be more helpful to you than anything you have ever heard. Bring your Bible, note books and pencil.

The evangelistic message last night as well as the previous night was of an interesting and instructive nature and highly enjoyed by all those present. It is very seldom that an audience is treated to such an educational exposition of Biblical texts as what Dr. Wertheimer gives.

The pastor of the church makes a special appeal to all his own members to make a sacrifice if needs be and attend all the meetings. If you are a member of the Baptist church you should make it a point to come yourself. It is to be hoped that there will be a good response to this appeal. We extend a hearty welcome to all to come and hear this great man. The subject for tomorrow night will be "Can a Brutal Man be Saved?"

Meet Next Tuesday

Since the announcement was made that a night school would be conducted in this city, many inquiries have been received by Supt. H. E. Gress and with the opening of the school, it is probable that many students will be enrolled. All those interested in this movement are requested to meet with Superintendent Gress in the new High school building at 7 o'clock next Tuesday evening at which time they can make known the courses they wish to pursue and final arrangements will be completed for the opening of the sessions.

To Lecture

Mrs. Mary Grace Canfield who will speak on suffrage at the meeting at Monessen on Oct. 14, at Fourth and Donner at 8 o'clock, is a Vermont woman who has come to Pennsylvania to help in the suffrage compaign because Pennsylvania is the home of her ancestors.

Her ancestors settled here long before the Revolution. Some of them were of Dutch stock. One of the members of this branch of the family, Nathan Hook, furnished much of the money that kept the Colonial troops at Valley Forge from starving. For this he was given a grant of several hundred acres in the western part of the state. He was the founder of Hookstown, in Beaver county. Another branch of her family were Quakers and helped settle York.

Mrs. Canfield's husband is a well known Universalist minister in Vermont. She was born and brought up in Ohio, but has lived in New England since her marriage. Since her children have grown up she has devoted a great deal of her time to club work and suffrage work. She says that she was born a suffragist so she has worked for the cause whenever possible.

Mrs. Canfield is a State officer in the Vermont Suffrage Association, has worked in the Ohio suffrage campaign and is an experienced suffrage speaker.

Exhibition Tonight

Charles McCourt, the expert three cushion billiard player, of Pittsburgh will be here this evening to meet some of the crack shots of this city in an exhibition at the Olympic billiard and bowling room. Manager Lebowitz will probably be the first to face Mr. McCourt, but a number of other players will also test their skill at this time. Mr. McCourt finished in the runner-up position in the interstate three cushion billiard tournament last season.

Prepare For Truck

Workmen are busily engaged putting in new supports to the floor of the borough building in which the new $5,900 fire truck will be kept. It is expected that the new truck will be here about the first of November, ready for use. Walter Bumbaugh, assistant manager of the Giboney Tire Company's office in Detroit, delivered the solid tires for the truck several weeks ago, and according to reports received here, the truck is now being tested out in and about Toledo.

Numerous applicants have been received by chauffeurs who are eager to secure the position of driver for the new truck. A man will be kept on the job at all hours after the arrival of the truck, and with the inauguration of the motor police patrol, it is possible that two men will be secured, each working a twelve hour turn.

To Erect New Plant

Monongahela is to get a new manufacturing plant, one that in time will likely employ nearly 1,000 men. Last evening a deal was consumated, whereby the Stauffer Chemical company took over 110 acres of bottom land on the Van Voorhis site on Pigeon Creek, near the city incinerating plant. The price paid for the property was $11,000.

Last evening John Stauffer and Albert Waesar, of the Stauffer company, met F. R. Colvin, S. M. Downer and R. H. Robinson, owners of the site and the agreement was reached. At first a bonus was asked and the sum of $8,000 was offered, the $8,000 to be raised at Monongahela. Last evening after meeting for several hours in private session, the matter was settled and the Stauffer company agreed to buy the property outright. The company has big plants in San Francisco and New York. Mr. Stauffer stated they would start work on the new plant just as soon as the deed for the property was turned over. At first the plant will give employment to about 4,000 men, but later many more will be needed. It is understood the company may also manufacture other materials along with the chemicals.

Appeal Failed

Attorneys Thomas H. Greevy of Altoona and Ralph C. Hurst of Greensburg left for home last night after having unsuccessfully appealed to the United States Supreme Court at Washington for a writ of error in behalf of H. E. Filler, under sentence of death at Greensburg for the killing of J. K. Blank in 1914. Mr. Creevy and Mr. Hurst will ask the United States District Court at Pittsburgh Friday for a writ of habeas corpus for Filler.

Man With Many Names Must Serve Long Term

James Hayes, with many other aliases, charged with forgery, entered a plea of guilty Monday before Judge McIlvaine at Washington. He was given an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary of from 2 years to five years, with a fine of $1 and costs. The court first sentenced him to pay the costs, fine of $1 and to undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for a year and six months. The defendant asked that he be given a penitentiary sentence instead of to the workhouse. Judge McIlvaine readily accommodated him and added on six months. Hayes did not appear to object, thanking the court very graciously.

Hayes is also known as John Hart, Samuel Kerr and J. P. Hallman. He is believed to be an expert in the kind of work he was carrying on. When arrested he had in his possession check books, some of the checks made out and signed. He had secured money on three checks at Monongahela and on one at Charleroi. Two of the checks were on the Dollar Savings & Trust Co., of Youngstown, O. One was payable to E. S. McCullough and was cashed by O. P. Glasser of Monongahela. It was payable to bearer and signed by John Hart. It was also cashed by Mr. Glasser and was for $5. A third was on the Citizens Nat. Bank if Evans City, payable to John Hart and signed by W. C. McWilliams. It was cashed by Oppenheim Bros., of Monongahela and was for $8.50. A fourth was on the First National bank of Webster and was signed by James Maxwell and for $5.

Ehalt Opening

A number of local people were in Greensburg yesterday to attend the opening of the New Ehalt hotel This popular county seat hostelry under the management of J. A. Sheetz of this city, has recently undergone extensive improvements, and is now classed as one of the leading hotels in the Pittsburgh district. The Westinghouse band, which gave a concert here during the summer, furnished music for the occasion.

The house yesterday presented a beautiful and ornamental appearance and the eye of the guest upon entering, looked upon the most modern architecture, a dining room equal to any in the land, a service unexcelled and a house throughout creditable to any city in the land. All were pleased and Mr. and Mrs. Sheetz received many congratulations for their enterprise and their desire to cater to and please the public.

Manufacturing Criminals

"The greatest crime in the United States is the wholesale manufacture of criminals," says Henry B. Hyde in the Chicago Tribune, writing of the great number of useless laws passed by state legislatures and city councils each year. And to support his indictment Mr. Hyde marshals an array of facts which fiction cannot match.

Commenting editorially on Mr. Hyde's charges, the Tribune says: "Obviously, what Mr. Hyde calls the wholesale manufacture of criminals" is one of the unexpected results of our uncritical reliance upon legislation as a cure-all. When the American sees anything he doesn't like, his first impulse is to pass a law against it. If there are no statutes against gravitation enacted at the vociferous behest of Americans who have slipped up on a winter's day, it is an oversight which will be corrected in due time.

"This is an American failing which is often commented on. Less often do we ponder the moral phase of the American habit of passing laws.

"Undoubtedly we have been passing through a period of acute social self-consciousness. Many things which were ignored by our fathers we understand or think we understand the evil of, and in attempting to express our new sense of responsibility and correct the newly discovered faults by our favorite method of law-making, we have not only far out-stripped our capacity for the more difficult task of administration, but we have developed a taste for correcting what seem to be our neighbors' errors which bids fair in turn to include everything from his choice of neckties to his religious creed.

"This taste for censorship is not discriminating. What seems to the great mass of a given community as at worst harmless or inconsiderate seems to some moral specialists heinous and deeply demoralizing. In no country of the world today, we believe, are there so many good people who happen to be passionately energized over some particular fact of our fallible human nature. The United States is one huge example of Herbert Spencer's simile on reform. It is a titanic sheet of metal on which the dinges are being furiously beaten down with the inevitable result that with almost every blow of our blundering hammers, a new dinge is made as the old one disappears.

In this period of "an awakened social conscience" we show collectively a tendency to neurasthenia in reform, and individually a supersensitiveness as to other people's errors. If a good many of our efforts at bettering the world overnight could be treated with a dose of humor and sense of proportion, a deal of unnecessary suffering could be avoided and some very serious social reactions escaped.

"But more is needed even than the perfecting of law enforcement and administration—a thing more difficult to attain. We need a check upon our growing tendency to force our neighbors into compliance with our own special standards. If we are to accept a sterner and more detailed social discipline, let us at least see that it is shaped by the common conscience and based on the broad and settled convictions of the community. Let us no longer subject the iudividual to the haterogeneous tyranny of innumerable minorities. Too much of our penal law is made under the cover of public indifference by that species of man or woman who would have us all run into the mold of his or her conviction."

INFLUENCE OF WOMEN

"Women are a wonderful influence in the lives of most great men," says the Washington Post, and upon women rests the responsibility for family health. To her they look for help in times of sickness, and the attention of every wife in this vicinity is called to the rare combination of the three oldest tonics known which the Hirsch Drug Co. guarantees in Vinol, iron for the blood, beef peptone for strength, and the body building, medicinal properties of cod livers. After stooping it was hard to regain an erect position and often the pains almost took one's breath away. Headaches were almost constant and black spots floated before the eyes. A number of medicines failed to bring help and Doan's Kidney Pills were finally procured at the Hirsch Drug Co. The first box brought relief and three boxes made a cure."

SPECIFIC ACTION OF GERMS

Results of Some Interesting Experiments That Were Made by Famous New York Physician.

In a lecture before the New York Academy of Medicine, Doctor Rosenow gave an interesting and convincing account of his experiments with germs taken from diseased organs in various parts of the body. He showed that bacteria taken from ulcers of the stomach, appendices, infected gallbladders and rheumatic joints, when injected into animals in the majority of instances caused infection and inflammation in the localities corresponding to those from which they had been taken. For example: Out of 59 animals injected with the germs taken from cases of appendicitis, 41 developed appendicitis. Out of 79 animals injected with the germs from ulcer of the stomach, 50 developed ulcer of the stomach, 47 showed hemorrhage. Out of 27 animals injected with germs from inflamed gallbladders 22 developed gallbladder affection Out of 71 animals injected with germs derived from cases of rheumatism, 47 developed joint affections, 33 developed inflammation of the lining of the heart, a frequent complication of rheumatism, 33 developed myocarditis, inflammation of the heart muscle, and 19 developed pericarditis, inflammation of the membrane surrounding the heart, 28 kidney affections, 19 peritonitis.

DEFENSE OF THE FAIRY TALE

Writer Points Out Its Importance in the Scheme of Education of the Child.

Ignorance of fairyland is the punishment of intellectual vanity—the vanity of the average pedagogue, who has forgotten that education means leading forth and not stuffing in.

It is the vanity of the physiologist who, forgetting that the germ-plasm is a faculty of influence and enterprise, not an arrangement of molecules, thinks to create it in a test-tube.

It is the vanity of the eugenist who believes he will improve upon those ancient ways of life which, for a few ages before Mendel and Weissmann, managed, all untutored, to evolve a reverent man, something more marvelous than these modern academic things who seem so ignorant of their native virtues.

To the fairy tale we must often look, if we are to mend our ways with the child and lead him forth to find that mighty world, that true self, which is the idea of him laid up in the heart of God.—New York Telegram.

Daily Housework Outline.

An outline of a system of housework was the request made not long ago by a bride-to-be, who wished some directions published for her guidance in housekeeping. The variation in the needs of different households makes a universal rule impracticable, as was suggested to the inquirer at the time; but she may find some help in a daily outline given by Miss Parloa, a noted authority on household matters. Miss Parloa says: "Make the fires, air the dining room and hall. Prepare the breakfast and set the table. Air the bedrooms while the family is at breakfast. Remove the breakfast dishes; put away the food Sort the dishes and put to soak all dishes and utensils that have had food in them which is liable to stick. Put dining room and sitting room in order, airing them well. Wash dishes, put kitchen and pantries in order. Prepare dishes that require slow cooking and put them to cook. Make beds and put sleeping rooms and bathroom in order. Trim lamps. Dust halls and stairs; sweep piazzas."

A Gem in Its Way.

This, slightly deleted, is from the erstwhile sedate Outlook, which was wont to frown upon levity as severely as the rest of us do on the deadly upas tree of the tropics or the equally dead singletree of the more temperate zones:

"You can get relief from bunions by walking pigeon-toed. A bad case of pigeon-toes can be cured by walking bow-legged. The remedy for chronic bow-legs is to walk knock-kneed Should knock-knees bring pigeon-toes again, one can, of course, always escape back to bunions."

Painting Walls.

Before paint or calcimine is applied to walls every crevice should be filled with plaster or cement. To the calcimine put one-quarter pound white glue in cold water overnight and heat gradually in the morning until dissolved. Mix eight pounds of whiting with hot water; add the dissolved glue and stir together, adding warm water until the consistency of thick cream. Use a calcimine brush and finish as you go along. If skim milk be used instead of water the glue may be omitted.

One Way to Make a Friend.

There are several kinds of hypocrisy, but the one that masculinity most favors is spurious devilishness. Nothing brings the beam of contentment so fervently to the mediocre eye as a Don Juan accession Dig him in the ribs and wink as you call him a sly dog—and he loves you. He may be the quintessence of domestic respectability, but if you will but insist that you believe him capable of maintaining a seraglio with consummate deceit, you are his friend.

Marriage Superstitions.

In some parts of Germany the duties of the bridesmaids are tinged with superstition It is one of their duties on the morning of the marriage day to carry to the bride a myrtle wreath, for which they had subscribed on the previous evening. This they place on her head and at night remove it, when it is placed in the bride's hand, she being at the time blindfolded. The bridesmaids then dance round her, while she endeavors to place the wreath on one of their heads. Whoever is fortunate enough to be thus decorated will, it is believed, be a wife before another year has passed In removing the bridal wreath and veil the bridesmaids are careful to throw away every pin or the bride will be overtaken by misfortune, while any unwary bridesmaid who retains one will lessen her chances of marriage.—Dundee Advertiser.

The Meteoric Hypothesis.

The nebular hypothesis of La Place has been abandoned in favor of the meteoric hypothesis of Lockyer and planitesmal hypothesis of Chamberlain. All suns, planets and moons, by these two nearly identical theories, were made by the falling in from space of small cosmical bodies, such as the meteors now falling on the earth

Trillions of years ago there was a meteor moving in space. It is now in the center of the earth Another meteor joined this by collision, then another, and this falling in is now going on at a vastly diminished rate, so that comparatively few are now coming in, as may be seen on almost any clear night.—Edgar Lucien Larkin in New York American.

White Man's Graveyard.

Africa is a remarkably beautiful country. Its coast lines are picturesque, graceful, fascinating, alluring. Its seaport towns and cities are usually clean, pretty and reasonably healthful. Equatorial Africa has, until the last two decades, been called the white man's graveyard, but clean living, quinine, mosquito netting, sobriety and sanitary improvements have made Africa a place where one can not only exist, but live in as much comfort, take it all in all during the year, as in the city of New York.—New York Telegram.

Stale Candy.

Stale candy can generally be worked over by reboiling. In the case of acid candies, such as lemon drops, the candy is boiled, the acid is withdrawn by the use of lime or chalk, and the sirup may then be used in the manufacture of that or any other species of candy.

Taking Up Time.

"Yes?"

"But that last caller extended his over an hour and a half"—Louisville Courier-Journal

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL
Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.
These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.
It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.
Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists

DOWNFALL OF THE MIGHTY

Lawyer's Description of Misfortune That Would Move Even Hardest Hearted to Tears.

"When this suit was commenced," said a counselor of the Nevada bar, "the Silver Mining company was a great corporation. Its stock sold on the San Francisco stock board for $300 a share, with dividends of $10 a month. In its mansion its directors had champagne and terrapin dinners every Saturday night, and, after dinner, through the moonlight midnight, and until the hush of the Sabbath morn, they played draw poker, with blue chips, and the ceiling for a limit. They had a United States senator and an ex-United States district judge for the company lawyers, and the stockholders walked along, snuffing the stars.

"Now, gentlemen of the jury, how are the mighty fallen, tempora mutantur, nos et mutamur in illis, which may be liberally translated: 'Formerly a lordly race horse, now a woodpacking jackass.' The stock has fallen to $6 a share, and there has been no dividend declared since the dawn of creation. The menu of the directors' dinner is pork and beans and sour beer. They play poker with white chips with bets limited to ten cents with every player squealing for a sight all the time. They have struck hot water and desert sand in the mine, and come down to this jack-legged, cock-eyed, ragged-breeched spawn of the devil for a lawyer."—Case and Comment.

UNLIKE THE MODERN METHOD

Egyptian Remedies for Skin Disease Differed Widely From Those at Present in Use.

The contrast between the very ancient and the very modern methods of treating skin diseases is well illustrated in the medical writings of the ancient Egyptians. The most modern method of treating these afflictions is by serums. A favorite prescription of the Egyptian doctors was the following: "Take the toes of a dog, ripe dates and asses' hoofs in equal parts. Boil these carefully in a pan of oil This is an excellent remedy for skin eruptions and to make hair grow."

In these ancient writings we find the first authentic record of the use of goose grease in therapeutics, and apparently this remedy has never lost its popularity. As used by the Egyptians, however, goose grease was only one of several ingredients useful in treating certain skin diseases, particularly baldness. In this recipe five other fats were used in equal parts, mus, crocodile, snake and ibex. This remedy was to be used for a period of not more than four days. But it appears that skin diseases continued prevalent in ancient Egypt, just as they prevail there at the present time

Work and Poverty.

If the time ever comes when there is no longer poverty in the world there will be a wonderful freedom for the higher qualities of the human race. Men will then work, not because they are driven by the competitive spirit, but from a higher impulse, love of work itself.

The chances are that if a man like Dickens had been free to work in this way he would have done not more work, perhaps even less, but work of finer and higher polish. For Dickens, as an artist, suffered till the end from poverty. If he had had more advantages in early youth his talents would have been better trained He would have had more taste and more balance. He would have striven less for popular and transient effect than for the truth, for what was permanent and of universal appeal.

Youth and Age and Whiskers.

As whiskers are the oldest living things, so they are the youngest. Youth and age are accentuated by whiskers. As the wind blown upon hot soup (two objects associating themselves naturally with whiskers)—as the wind blown upon hot soup cools the soup, and as the wind blown upon cold fingers warms the fingers, so is a dual role played upon young and old by the facial appurtenance. Nothing in this world looks as old as an old man wearing a patriarchal beard. And nothing in this world looks as young as a young man fondly imagining that he is wearing a "Van Dyke."

Substitute for Poker Chips.

The use of small, round oyster crackers is advisable as a substitute for poker chips, as they are easily devoured and the crime hidden, should the police raid the place. Cards alone are no indication that poker dominates therein. It requires chips to furnish that evidence. If a banker is on to his job, he will spread lightly a coating of tempting cheese upon the crackers as he issues them. This practice will, in a great measure, relieve him of the responsibility of cashing many at the conclusion of the game!—Zim in Cartoons Magazine.

Didn't Like the Decision.

One day while walking with a friend in San Francisco, a professor and his companion became involved in an argument as to which was the handsomer man of the two. Not being able to arrive at a settlement of the question, they agreed, in spirit of fun, to leave it to the decision of a Chinaman who was seen approaching them. The matter being laid before him, the Oriental considered long and carefully; then he announced in a tone of finality: "Both are worse."

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. HODGDON, ME.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—MRS. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Me.

2. SHELBYVILLE, KY.—"I suffered from a severe female trouble. My right side hurt me badly—it was finally decided that I must be operated upon. When my husband learned this he got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking it a few days I got better and continued to improve until I am now well."—Mrs. MOLLIE SMITH, R.F.D., Shelbyville, Ky.

3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—Mrs. ADA WILT, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.

4. DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2437 East William Street, Decatur, Ill.

5. CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years my side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1568 Constant St., Cleveland, O.

Following is the program of the Olympic theatre for week beginning Monday, Oct. 11 and ending Saturday Oct. 16—:

REGULAR PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY—"An All Around Mistake," 2 reel Imp, with King Baggot, the favorite Universal star. "Married on Credit," with Billie Ritchie and Orth. L KO comedy. "He Couldn't Support His Wife" a Joker.

THURSDAY—"The Sheriff of Red Rock Gulch," a 2 reel Big U. Always we have the best from the Big U Universal. "Lady Baffles and D. D. in "The Ore Mystery" with Max Asher and Gale Henry, a Powers comedy. "Avenged by a Fish" with Gribbon and Emory, L KO comedy.

FRIDAY—"The Wolf of Debt" with William Garwood and Violet Mersereau. Here is asplendid production, one that would go on its wonderful setting and photography alone. But there is a lot more to it than that. To be sure one of the big punches is accomplished by means of night photography in a rain storm, but the story is there with a punch all the time. Handsome Billy Garwood as the deserted husband of pretty Violet Mersereau shows himself very much of a man, and will win your applause when he chases the run-a-way wife and her lover on foot through a terrible storm. He is big enough and man enough to bring matters to the right conclusion with one of the most effective climaxes ever seen on the screen.

SATURDAY—"The Ghost Wagon," in three reels. Every movie fan loves a western story on the screen if it's good. And he knows when he sees a good thing. Some of the bunko stuff put out as a western drama would make a horse laugh, but the Universal actors must know how to ride, and so there is a real thrill in "The Ghost Wagon" for every foot of film. Animated Weekly No. 186. The Strand theatre of New York, the best one in the world, runs the Animated Weekly for two years. So it must be good and you know it, too.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY—"The Flash," a part of "The Romance of Elaine" with the dearest actress, Pearl White and the Mysterious Mr. X. We have not had a better serial picture than Pathe serial, " The Exploits of Elaine"—"The New Exploits and Romance of Elaine." A proof to this is the great crowds that attend these serials, but now we positively say and guarantee in every way that the new Pathe serial which is coming Oct. 27, Wednesday, "The Neal of the Navy" made for the Pathe by Balboa Co., the same company that made the series "Who Pays?"—"The Neal of the Navy" featuring one of the most beautiful actresses in America, Lillian Loraine with William Courtleich, is the greatest serial picture in the market yet.

—THURSDAY—The world famous actor, Nat C. Goodwin in Octave Mirabeau's tragedy, "Business is Business." Scenario by F. McGrew Twillis, produced by Ottis Turner. It is useless to talk any further. When Nat C. Goodwin plays in one of the Broadway Universal features, as both are solid as a rock. Guaranteed by the strongest company of the world, with the famous actor back of it. The great pictures of Broadway Universal company continue to be wonderful and they are going to be continued indefinitely every Thursday.

FRIDAY—Metro Pictures Corporation presents the fascinating screen personality Mary Miles Minter in a picturization of the song classic "Always in the Way," produced by Dyreba Art Films by Charles K. Harris.

Please mister, take me in your car,
I want to see mamma,
They say she lives in heaven, is it very very far?
My new mamma is very cross and scolds me every day
I guess she does not love me for I'm Always in the way."

A charming and emotional picture that should not be missed by anyone.

NOTICE

There is a mistake about the divorce of Mrs. Jennie G. Sibbitt being granted in the grounds of desertion. A divorce on that ground would not be granted for two years. Wilbur C. Sibbitt left Monessen March 25, 1915, with a woman living in Monongahela, after having her in his home, in the absence of his wife, Mrs. Sibbitt. The divorce of Mrs Sibbitt was granted on the grounds of infidelity and other charges not fit for print.
